

Considerations for Birds and Wildlife on Your Woodland

What have you already done to support birds on your land? What do you plan to do and when? Use this checklist to organize your next steps in providing birds and other wildlife what they need to thrive in your woods. To learn more, consult our fact sheet, consider working with a professional to implement these practices on the ground, or visit our website at www.mymainewoods.org.
